Session Cookies

Our website, www.bearvalleyministorage.com, uses session cookies to enable making transactions on our site. A session cookie is a small file placed on your computer which acts as a unique identifier to keep track of the information you have entered. Without the session cookie, our site cannot track the information you are entering, and you will be unable to complete your transaction.

How to Enable Cookies on your Browser

Your web browser is the primary way you can control cookies. The method for changing your cookie settings will vary depending on the browser you use, but options should be similar regardless of your browser choice.

Internet Explorer

If you are using IE 6, your cookies will be automatically controlled based on your privacy settings. If you would like to override automatic cookie control, choose Tools -> Internet Options -> Privacy -> Advanced. From this panel you can choose to override automatic cookie handling, and specify how you would like to deal with First Party and Third Party cookies. First party cookies come from the owner of the website you are visiting, third party cookies come from a different company (for instance, an advertising company). You can select "Accept", "Block", or "Prompt" - if you choose "Prompt", your browser will notify you each time a web site attempts to set a cookie on your machine, and you can choose to accept or reject the cookie. If you would like to accept session cookies, but not persistent cookies, check the box to "Always Allow Session Cookies." Please note that session cookies are required to enable shopping on many web sites, including Bear Valley Mini-Storage.

In Mozilla Firefox, cookie options are available at Options -> Privacy -> Cookies, and in Opera 7 cookie preferences are available in File -> Preferences -> Privacy.

Bear Valley Mini-Storage Terms and Conditions

Bear Valley Mini-Storage provides its services to you subject to the following notices, terms, and conditions.

Refunds

All rental transactions are final. We do not prorate your rent when you vacate. If you intend to vacate your unit, you must do so by the last day of the month in order to avoid paying another month's rent. If your unit is not vacant on the first day of the month, a full month's rent will be due.

There are no exceptions. Customers rent on a monthly basis. The initial rental period will be prorated so that rent will be due on the first day of each month. Rent will not be prorated for move-outs. In the event your account is overcharged due to an error, we will refund your account after being notified of the discrepancy.
